Emeria appoints Bruno Vaquette as Chief Executive Officer

Bruno Vaquette has been appointed Chief Executive Officer of Emeria, the leading European provider of services and technology in the real estate sector, effective August 18, 2025.

“The Board of Directors is pleased to appoint Bruno Vaquette as Chief Executive Officer of the Emeria group. Bruno Vaquette’s appointment marks a decisive milestone for our Group. His 24 years of experience at Sodexo in executive and strategic roles, as well as his deep operational expertise, will be valuable assets in pursuing the company’s transformation journey as we continue to reinforce our client relationships”, stated Baudouin Prot, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Emeria.

“I am delighted to join Emeria, a key player in real estate services and technologies, at such a pivotal time in its development. In a constantly evolving environment — shaped by shifting client expectations, growing demands for energy transition, and ongoing technological advancements — our ability to anticipate change is essential. I firmly believe that, thanks to the commitment of its teams, the strength of its business model, its technological differentiation, and its strong local presence and innovation at the core of its mission, we have all the assets needed to accelerate the Group’s growth. I am fully committed to achieving this ambition”, commented Bruno Vaquette, Chief Executive Officer of Emeria.

About Bruno Vaquette

After graduating from SKEMA Business School and INSEAD, Bruno Vaquette joined the Sodexo Group in 2001. In 2012, he was appointed Chief Operating Officer for Sodexo Corporate Services in France.
