Emeria Announces the Appointment of Laurent Carozzi as Group Chief Financial Officer

Emeria, the European leader in residential real estate services, today announces the appointment of Laurent Carozzi as Group Chief Financial Officer (CFO), effective 1 March 2026. He succeeds Antoine Grenier.

Laurent Carozzi will report directly to Bruno Vaquette, Chief Executive Officer of Emeria, and will join the Group's Senior Leadership Committee.

Graduated from the University of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne and the École Normale Supérieure of Cachan, Laurent Carozzi has served as Chief Financial Officer of the Atalian Group since 2023, a leading player in facility management in France and Europe.

With more than 20 years of experience, Laurent Carozzi is recognized for his expertise gained in senior financial leadership roles within major international groups such as Lagardère Sport & Entertainment, Publicis, and more recently Technicolor.

"I am very pleased to welcome Laurent Carozzi as Group Chief Financial Officer of Emeria. With his solid experience in international groups and his strong understanding of the strategic priorities in the services sector, he will make a decisive contribution to the pursuit of our growth ambitions. His appointment fully aligns with our transformation strategy, supporting the sustainable development of the Group in a constantly evolving pan-European environment. I would also like to thank Antoine Grenier for his commitment and contribution over the last eight years within the Emeria Group," said Bruno Vaquette, CEO of Emeria.

"I am delighted to join Emeria and would like to thank Bruno Vaquette for his trust. I am committed to actively contributing to the transformation and growth of the Group, which, through the richness of its history and the diversity of its locally rooted presence, has many strengths to further consolidate its leading position," said Laurent Carozzi, Group CFO of Emeria.

REAL ESTATE TECH & SERVICES

With the appointment of Laurent Carozzi as Group Chief Financial Officer, Emeria reaffirms its ambition to build a leading European group in residential real estate services, by placing technology and customer experience at the heart of its priorities in support of better housing and better living together.
